

DETECTIVE A/SERGEANT NATHAN LANGDOWN

ACT POLICING

Detective A/Sergeant Nathan Langdown has been a police officer within ACT Policing for 10 years. For the last 5 of those years, he has worked within the Major Crime Squad. Nathan is currently the Team Leader for the Major Crime Squad – Belconnen responsible for the investigation of the most serious crime within the ACT, such as aggravated robberies, serious assaults, firearm offences and complicated deaths. Highlights of his career include a successful Manslaughter prosecution and the extradition of a child sex offender from Spain to Australia.

CASE STUDY: VIRTUAL KIDNAPPING

This case study will examine virtual kidnapping, including its rise in occurrence, the profiles of victims, investigative challenges, and strategies for prevention and public awareness.

PC/
2025

25-26 NOVEMBER | ANZPAA
POLICE
CONFERENCE

POLICING
FOR THE FUTURE:
WHAT MATTERS MOST